It's beautiful to see Nallur Kovil both during the day and by night.

In this abandoned mansion, you can see the interesting mix of hindu and colonial architecture. It is believed to be the minister's abode during the reign of King Sangili (the last King of Jaffna).

Keerlimallai

Located close to Keerimalli there is a small exhibition set up, displaying paintings, old photographs and artefacts of Jaffna. It displays all things unique to Jaffna.

Old Jaffna Kachcheri

Although it is currently being restored, the old kachcheri is an amazing place to walk around, snap interesting pics and imagine what the beauty of the building would have originally been like.

Point Pedro

The best place to see sunrises and sunsets by the water, from the northern-most point of Sri Lanka.
